

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS (INB)

INB 5333 Global Business Development (3)

A study of the international dimensions of American enterprise and the background of the international environment. Includes international trade concepts, cultural dynamics, business customs, multinational markets, development markets, and influence of political, legal, and geographic factors on international marketing.