

SPANISH, MODERN LANGUAGES AND CULTURES

Department of Spanish, Modern Languages and Cultures

Graduate Program Director: Stephen Silverstein

The goals of the Master of Arts program in Spanish are

1. to prepare students to pursue the Ph.D. in Spanish and related fields,
2. to prepare students to be effective teachers, and
3. to prepare students to work in business and professional activities that require Spanish in this country and abroad.

Baylor's MA in Spanish provides a balanced study of canonical works in Latin American and Peninsular Literature together with a solid grounding in Hispanic Linguistics.

Admission

An applicant should have a bachelor's degree from an accredited university with a minimum of eighteen hours of Spanish beyond the sophomore level or the equivalent. An applicant should have a GPA in Spanish courses taken as an undergraduate that is predictive of success in this graduate program. Each candidate will be evaluated on an individual basis, and additional designated courses may be required as prerequisites for graduate work. All applicants must present the GRE General Test and, for international students, either the TOEFL, IELTS, or Duolingo exam is required.
