

LEARNING AND ORGANIZATIONAL CHANGE, M.S.ED

This is a non-admitting degree option for students who are currently enrolled in the EdD in Learning and Organizational Change program and will not be progressing. Applicants must hold a minimum GPA of 3.0 or higher and be currently enrolled in the EdD in Learning and Organizational Change program.

The MSED requires the successful completion of 36 credit hours.

Code	Title	Hours
EDC 5392	Issues in Diversity	3
EDC 6336	Qualitative Research and Data Analysis	3
EDP 5333	Psychology of Learning, Cognition, and Affect	3
EDC 5391	Social Foundations of Education	3
EDP 5334	Statistical Methods	3
EDP 5327	Educational Evaluation	3
EDC 6359	Mixed Methods Research Design and Analysis	3
EDC 6361	Leadership and Organizational Change	3
EDC 5350	Teaching for Understanding	3
EDC 6360	Instructional Design	3
EDC 6362	Community Leadership & Collaboration	3
Select one course from the following:		3
EDC 6368	Future Trends in Leadership
EDC 6376	Organizational Change in a Technological Society
Total Hours		36

Following the completion of these credits, students take a comprehensive examination.