

WESLEY HOUSE OF STUDIES (WSLY)

WSLY 7310 Wesleyan Theology and Doctrine (3)

A critical introduction and examination of the content and place of doctrine and theology in the Methodist tradition.

WSLY 7320 Wesleyan History & Polity (3)

This course considers John Wesley and the origins and development of Wesleyan doctrine, spirit, and discipline, including the history of divisions and mergers as well as the establishment of the Methodist Episcopal Church in North America and the global Wesleyan tradition.

WSLY 7330 Wesleyan Worship & Sacraments (3)

This course will introduce students to the theology and practice of worship and sacraments in the Wesleyan tradition, giving special attention to the liturgical calendar, music and hymnody, preaching, baptism, holy communion, and rituals for special services, including healing, confirmation, weddings, funerals, and ordination.