

CERTIFICATE IN HEALTH COMMUNICATION

This certificate requires 12 credit hours in the following courses. All courses must be completed in-residence. Students must earn a grade of C or better in each course. Admission is open to Communication Studies undergraduate students. Students in the program must also complete at least one regular communication studies degree plan and fulfill program requirements prior to graduation.

Requirements for a Certificate in Health Communication

Code	Title	Hours
Twelve semester hours including the following:
CSS 3310	Communication Theory	3
CSS 4315	Health Communication	3
CSS 4317	Narrating Health Across Culture	3
CSS 4319	Cultural Approaches to Health Communication	3
Additional requirements:
A grade of "C" or better in all courses applied to the certificate.
The Certificate in Health Communication is open to students enrolled in BA Communication (all tracks) and BA Communication Specialist degree plans.
Total Hours		12